We have so much to celebrate this month and we can't wait to party with you! Join us on February 27th for our biggest event of the year, the Annual Open House or celebrate Seattle’s changing demographics with our lecture series Hello Seattle where this month's talk focuses on everybody's favorite topic, food. We also still have space available in our exciting youth workshop, Edible Landscapes, hosted at local architecture firm Perkins + Will.

Party with SAF at our Annual Open House! Remember When: A Celebration of Seattle's Past Present and Future February 27, 2018 6:00 - 8:00 PM At the Center for Architecture and Design

Want to get more involved in your community, meet new people and make friends? Whether you're a seasoned volunteer or interested in learning more about volunteering at SAF, this is a great event to learn more about our programs, meet other volunteers and Shape Seattle!

The open house is also where we celebrate the accomplishments of our spectacular volunteers and community members with the Bill Strong Award for Volunteer Excellence and our Community Partner Award. To learn more about these awards and to make nominations please visit our website.

This catered event will include a fun activity where you can test your Seattle history knowledge, so bring your thinking caps! Help us spread the word by posting this flyer or sharing it with friends!

Sign up for Spring tour guide training!
March 17, 2018
At the Center for Architecture and Design
Registration open now!

Are you interested in becoming a tour guide for SAF? Our tour guide training only takes place once a year and you must attend the all-day training and participate in two training tours to become a tour guide. This year in addition to our regular tour guide training we will be doing a special training for volunteers interested in leading Youth Tours.

February Youth Design Workshop
Edible Landscapes: Urban Gardens and Farms
Tour of the month: Greatest Hits Tour: Chart Toppers and Heart-Stoppers
February 17, 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM
Starts in the Fairmont Olympic Hotel Lobby

Develop an appreciation for the social forces which shaped Seattle and our built environment. Featured stops include the Fifth & Madison Condominium/901 Fifth Avenue Plaza and Seattle City Hall.

February 10, 11:00 - 3:00
at Perkins + Will 1301 Fifth Avenue

What's more local than food grown right in the city? As Seattle grows denser and the temperature rises, cultivating green spaces in our city is more important than ever. Working with landscape architects, participants will design their own living buildings and edible landscapes.

Cost per student $25

We offer need-based scholarships for all SAF Youth Programs. For questions about scholarships or youth programs in general, email Program Director Kathryn Higgins at kathryn@seattlearchitecture.org or call 206-667-9184.
