Volunteer Open House: Pick Your Palette, Leave Your Mark on Seattle
February 24, The Frye Art Museum, 11am
It’s a fun (but real) way to make a difference in our community by helping to create urban art murals that will surround our key public spaces. We’ll help you choose a color and a spot and then get to work! Registration is required. Register here.

Youth Workshop: Housing/Designing Where We Live, February 14
In partnership with Everybody Working at Jackson Place
Growing Up in Weintraub Place, IL, 3pm
A fun and interactive program for kids ages 5-12 interested in housing and design. The event will include interactive activities and a visit to Weintraub Place. There will be a Q&A session with SALA board members and_event organizers. Registration is required. Register here.

Family Workshop: House/Attractive Seattle Dwellings
February 7, Interior Space, 11am
A fun and educational activity for the whole family. We’ll decorate a house together and learn about our city’s architectural history. All you need to bring is your creativity and a readiness to learn about Seattle’s housing past and present. Registration is required. Register here.
