With the arrival of June, and warmer temperatures on the horizon, it’s the perfect time to go out and explore Seattle in new ways! This month, we look forward to offering several new ways to learn about the city, whether you are new to Seattle, or have lived here your whole life. Join us for our Design In Depth event of the series, Food + Architecture, or join us on the first-run of our newly revamped skyscrapers tour, High Ambitions.

Summer exploration extends to our youth programs as well. Students at Washington Middle School and the Northwest School will be introduced to community advocacy and global architecture, read on to learn more!

Design In Depth, Food + Architecture

What Does your Practice Add to the Concept of FORM?

This year’s exhibit theme, FORM, is a word that can be used as either a noun or a verb, both a thing and an action. FORM can be what exists in the world now and what is taking shape. When paired with a range of prefixes and suffixes, FORM takes on new and unique meanings (reFORM, inFORM, uniFORM).

View our Call for Entries! Submit your entries through our Online Form by Friday, June 5th. Questions? Email Aletheia Wittman.

City Stories: Engaging Youth Voices

New Program with Feet First and Seattle Parks & Recreation

Join Us! Shape Seattle!

City Stories is a new neighborhood-based youth program developed by SAF in partnership with Feet First.

For our first session of City Stories this June and July, students in Seattle’s Central District will be exploring their neighborhood through walking audits, digital storytelling and design thinking activities to develop ideas about what the neighborhood should be like 20 years in the future! You can find more information on our Sponsor Program here.

(Donations made 1/1/14 - 6/2/15).
Enjoy great discounts and benefits when you become an SAF member. Your support will allow us to continue connecting people of all ages to the diverse architectural landscape of Seattle.
