The Seattle Design Festival is Upon Us!

This year, SAF is pleased to introduce the 2014 Seattle Design Festival. The goal of the festival is to bring design to the forefront of our thinking and daily lives. The Seattle Design Festival offers insight into our city’s architectural history through walking tours and model exhibits, as well as an exploration of the present and future through design lectures, workshops, and public programs. The Seattle Design Festival is designed to engage people of all ages who are curious about the diverse architectural landscape of Seattle and the role of design in their everyday lives.

The Seattle Design Festival kicks off September 16 with the opening of the 2014 Annual Model Exhibit, a showcase of models from early to current projects, illustrating their ideas for improved problem-solving and learning about diverse architectural landscape of Seattle neighborhoods. A diverse group of designers and architects will present their work at lectures and workshops throughout the festival. You can find more information on our website, www.seattlearchitecture.org.
