Visit our new exhibit, Wild Tensions: How Design Impacts the Outdoor Experience June 7 - August 18!

Because we know that this season is fleeting, Seattleites like to take every opportunity to celebrate summer. SAF is here to help with a spread of summer events with something for everyone.

At our upcoming exhibit, Wild Tensions, focused on outdoor recreation you can learn about how trails are designed. At our Wild Tensions Family Day you can stock-up on homemade trail mix before heading to the nearest campground with the kids.

Cool off with a Westland Distillery cocktail at the Graypants studio or bask on the rooftop deck of Schemata Workshop's co-housing space in Capitol Hill during one of our Design Soirées.

Whether you decide to learn about community gardens on our first Neighborhood Exchange event or treat visiting relatives to an architectural tour of the city there are plenty of sunny ways to celebrate design!

Wild Tensions: How Design Mediates the Outdoor Experience

Exactly how authentic do we want our outdoor experience to be, and how far do we have to go to find it? Wild Tensions: How Design Mediates the Outdoor Experience explores the inherent tensions between our pursuit of the wilderness experiences that are so integral to our Pacific Northwest identity and the environmental impact of the built interventions that allow us access to wild spaces.

Join us next week for the free opening night reception featuring light snacks and beverages, no RSVP required.

Celebrate The New Exhibit On CFAD Family Day
Saturday, June 16th, 10am-2pm

Join us for a special Family Day celebrating the opening of Wild Tensions: How Design Impacts the Outdoor Experience. There will be free and fun family activities for all ages including face painting, building activities, trail mix making and guests from Woodland Park Zoo!
