Thanks to everyone who attended our Open House earlier this month! Despite the weather we had a strong showing of people who are excited to volunteer! We were thrilled to present our annual Bill Strong Award for Volunteer Excellence to Mohan Khandekar, for his service in our Family Programs. We also were honored to present Schemata Workshop with our Community Partner Award, for their commitment to building community through their practice and by encouraging their staff to be involved and give back. We are also pleased to congratulate our newest tour guide graduates Maurice Diaz, Emily Nassif, Rob Outcalt, Kyle Redzinak, Katie Unruh and Austin Watson.

Family Program:
For Your Eyes Only: Secret Bases
March 9, 10:00 -12:00
Ages 5 - 9
At the Center for Architecture and Design

Sometimes you just have to go somewhere where nobody knows your name, somewhere that nobody knows… period. In this workshop, we’ll design undercover hideouts that nobody can find but you. Trap doors, secret passages, and a lot of camouflage will be involved.

need to be available for two additional activities, a practice tour/walk-through and a free public tour with an audience. You will work in a small group alongside your tour mentor during these sessions. Each group will be learning a different tour, so it’s important that you be able to attend both sessions in the group.

The Model Exhibit is Coming!
Get Involved by Joining the 2019 Model Exhibit Committee

Since 1997, SAF has been hosting the Annual Architectural Model Exhibit, highlighting the art and craft of model building as well as new and innovative architectural design both in the Pacific Northwest and by local architects. But the Model Exhibit would not be possible without the dedication of the volunteers on our Model Exhibit committee. Our Committee chooses the annual theme,
