This summer be sure to squeeze in some SAF events between your Seafair shindigs and backyard barbecues! After you recover from your independence celebrations join us for a Design Soirée with Collaborative Co., or learn about how public art affects the vitality of a city at Urban Transformations: The power of Public Art. If you’d rather spend time outdoors we have 16 walking tours this month which means no matter your schedule you can probably find one that works for you!

Design Soirée: Craft and the Art of Collaboration
July 11, 6:00 - 8:00 PM
Hosted by Collaborative Companies
At 10 Dravus St

Join Collaborative Co. in their unique space near the Fremont Ship Canal for drinks and discussion. Celebrate Seattle’s rich history of craftsmanship in the former work-space of the influential Gulassa & Company. When thinking about design how do we honor the past, stay centered in the present and bring forward a new future?

Panel Discussion
Urban Transformations: The Power of Public Art
July 16, 5:30 - 7:30 PM
At the Center for Architecture & Design

Join us for this panel discussion to understand obstacles and opportunities for how we can strategically and organically integrate art into Seattle’s evolving urban fabric.

This talk is in conjunction with the exhibit, “Discover and Disrupt,” produced by Electric Coffin for AIA Seattle. The exhibit
All funds raised support SAF’s mission of educating and inspiring the public to connect to Seattle’s architecture, design and history.

Board Update

SAF’s Board is comprised of dedicated community leaders who establish and guide the vision of SAF. At our June Board meeting we voted on new officers and expressed our appreciation for the service of outgoing members.

We’d like to take a moment to thank all of our returning Board Members, congratulate our incoming officers and to welcome a new Member.

Incoming Officers
President
Casey Schuchart, Partner & President, Schuchart Corporation
Vice President
Crystal Loya, Associate, Mithun

examines what it would look like if cities were shaped with whimsy and humanity, and if art was able to thrive beyond commercial spaces. Public Art is critical to the cultural vitality of a city, and yet the actors that shape our cities are under the constant strain to minimize budgets and maximize efficiency.
